Enfield High School
Thompsonville, Connecticut

DEDICATION

We the class of 1967 wish to express our deepest appreciation for the untiring efforts of Mr. Harry E. Tatoian to establish a school of the highest caliber. His enthusiasm for every task, his sincere interest in each of us, and his devotion to learning won for him our respect and admiration.

His leadership and guidance during his twenty years as teacher and principal cast light upon all the students with whom he came in contact. He tried and he succeeded in creating an atmosphere of faculty-student cooperation. His immeasurable assistance in preparing us for future life and his endless concern for our well-being have better equipped us to face life's never-ending challenges.

In recognition of his devotion to us and to the ideals for which he stood we proudly dedicate the 1967 Echo to

Mr. Harry E. Tatoian

Mr. Tatoian awards Nancy Mancuso a National Honor Society certificate.

Mr. Tatoian confers with a student.

BENJAMIN REVERUZZI

In Appreciation

The fruits of twenty-nine years of dedicated community service performed in a most unobtrusive manner has been our legacy from Mr. Reveruzzi. Few people are aware of the enormous amount of work entailed in the formulation of educational policy in the educational system of this community. When Mr. Reveruzzi was first elected to the Board of Education in 1938, there were only 1,500 pupils with a staff of seventy teachers distributed among one high school, five elementary, and two rural schools. The facilities were very limited, the employees' salaries were very low, and the equipment was scant. Recognizing those limitations for a good educational program, Mr. Reveruzzi worked unceasingly for improvement in these areas. Serving as a member of the Finance Committee of the Board of Education for twenty years and as Secretary for six, Mr. Reveruzzi was instrumental in gaining larger appropriations, and for the carrying out of the policies of the Board to the extent that we have a system second to none in this state. Among other committees on which he served were the High School Site, the Enfield High School Building, the Hazardville Memorial School, and the Suffield Vocational Agricultural Advisory. Serving on the Committees entailed hundreds of hours of meetings with hundreds of people to obtain the lust for the taxpayers' dollars. Of the results of his personal efforts we can be justifiably proud and most appreciative. The record of Mr. Reveruzzi's service and the results of his contribution are a testimonial of his superb civic interest. We, who have been the beneficiaries of his twenty-nine years of dedication to young people, thank and salute you, Mr. Ben Reveruzzi.

Preface

Light may have many different effects. Light can be beneficial or harmful, rewarding or punitive, pure or corrupted. But no matter what form it is in, light is mandatory.

As we entered Enfield High School for the first time the shadows we cast were awkward and stumbling. This was the start of four years of great physical and mental growth. At times we may have groped and stumbled in the dark but there was always an interested teacher or administrator ready to give us guidance and understanding. Well equipped laboratories and modern classroom facilities aided us. We were offered well-rounded academic, business, academic-vocational and vocational programs. Completing these programs were our many extra-curricular activities and clubs.

The true value of the light of knowledge is determined by how we apply it. We must use this light to brighten the various roads ahead of us in life. If we allow this lamp to be wasted by not using its light then we are allowing our minds to be wasted by not using its knowledge.

The intensity of our flame of knowledge has been increasing each year of our education. It is up to us to obtain as much of this brilliance as our minds are capable of grasping. There is only one way we can fail in our decision, that would be if we fail to apply what we have learned to our futures.

Students gain experience in the art of speech.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The English Department, dedicated to teaching the fundamentals of our language and expanding our literary culture, has always strived to meet the needs of each student. Business English for juniors was initiated this year to fulfill the special needs of the business student. Academic and General English are also offered to the students.

Active participation on the part of both student and teacher broaden our intellectual integrity, preparing all of us for the bright future ahead.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Enfield High's program of social studies provides the student with a varied background. Courses include Geography, World Civilization, Civics, World Problems, Social Problems, Economics, and American History. Through the efforts of the social studies department, the student becomes more aware of the world around him, its problems and its challenges, and is therefore better able to prepare for his role as an informed citizen.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Aided by the highly advanced and specialized foreign language laboratory, the language department enables the student to discover the important and fascinating world of foreign languages. In a technological society where understanding and communications must go hand in hand, a firm background in linguistics is a major step in improving our relationship with different cultures.

International magazines aid the student in gaining an increased knowledge of foreign cultures.

Mrs. Myott instructs students in the use of the language laboratory.

Under the direction of Miss Coulombe, students practice the mechanics of typing.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The business department aids the student in preparing for a career in a highly industrial world. According to his individual needs, each student may obtain both technical knowledge and experience in varied business skills. There are many specialized areas available for study. Typing, bookkeeping, stenography, business machines, business mathematics, selling and business law, economic geography, general clerical practice and business principles are course offerings in the business curriculum.

Business machines enable the students to develop the skills of using office equipment.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

In today's increasingly complex world, a graduate of Enfield High leaves with a background which will enable him to become a productive citizen. Mathematics is an especially important step in this direction. Students have the opportunity to study subjects ranging from Math I and Algebra I to Trigonometry and Calculus. Many of us have received these benefits and we are confident that our mathematics department will continue to enlighten the many underclassmen to come.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

The science department, complete with modern equipment and laboratories, provides Enfield High students with opportunities to investigate the sciences. Included in the offered courses are general science, physical science, earth science, biology, physics, and chemistry. In all science courses, the student is trained in the techniques of scientific method and investigation.

Mr. Benoit instructs the class in a chemistry lab.

Mr. Lunetta explains the use of the oscilloscope to physics students.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The home economics student, provided with many modern facilities, acquires varied skills necessary to her future role as wife, mother and homemaker. Cooking, family nutrition, serving, and home budgeting are among the few skills focused upon during the year. The Home and Family Course prepares young men and women for their potential roles in marriage and parenthood.

DRIVER EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The driver education department, on a tri-semester basis, is one of the most popular elective subjects offered. This course, equipped with classroom films and driv-o-trainer cars, develops the skill of the students before going out on the road. In addition, the classroom instruction offers the basic rules and regulations with which all drivers must be familiar before obtaining a license.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We leave the halls of Enfield High School as older, wiser, and more mature individuals. Yet, along with this growth is a general feeling of uncertainty toward the puzzling world we are about to enter. Just as, four years ago, we found ourselves as bewildered freshmen longing for the status we had acquired in junior high, we today long for the security we have attained here at Enfield.

We face the same situation today, as every past generation has, for society thrives on man's dependence on one another. Alone we cannot change the world, but each of us can be one glowing spark, kindling the fire of hope for a bright future that awaits us all.

LAURA BAIONE

CLASS HISTORY

Freshman year was our first chance to gain the further enlightenment of education necessary for our future.

Our first combined class activity was choosing our class officers. We chose Tim Riley, President; Larry Baione, Vice-President; Laura Baione, Secretary; Ned Arcoutte, Treasurer; and Nora Jamieson, Historian. Our student council representatives were Janice Wojnar, Rita Worth, Jan Kaminsky, Peter Grace, Lee Snyder, and Don Bania.

Honor was brought to us in the field of athletics by Ned Arcoutte, Frank Thompson, Alan David, Tim Riley, John Follis, Dan Naughton, Dave Dastous, Joe Nosal, Dave Tucker, and Robbie Robinson all of whom achieved recognition on the J.V. football team.

On the basketball court were Joe Nosal, Alan David, Russ Tyler, Dave Tucker, John Ravenola, Jim Arietti, Bill Malinoski, Fella Olshafski, and Dan Naughton. Cheering for the J.V. basketball team was Rosemary Sullivan.

On the baseball diamond were Dave Tucker, Alan David, Russ Tyler, John Ravenola, Bill Malinoski, and Randy Ladd.

Ken Breedon received recognition as the only freshman on the Varsity Soccer team.

Scholastically, Nancy White received an English composition award while Cindy Shea and George Rypsc received Scholastic Art awards.

Charles Lamana was the recipient of the Business Mathematics award.

During our sophomore year, the flame of knowledge was intensified.

We chose to lead us in our activities: Laura Baione, President; Duane Nelson, Vice-President; Cheryl Molyn, Secretary; and Gerald Dumond, Treasurer. Representatives elected were Peter Grace, Terry Calnen, Jerry Calnen, Don Bania, Jan Kaminsky, and Lee Snyder.

On the gridiron, Joe Nosal, Russ Tyler, Alan David, Frank Roy King, and Joe Paquin suppressed the opposition.

The J.V. basketball team consisted of sophomores Joe Nosal, Alan David, Dave Tucker, Robbie Robinson, John O'Dell, Jack Prazner, Jim Arrietti, Bill Malinowski, Jack Triolo, John Ravenola, Rich Gwozdz, and Bill Kiernan. Rousing school spirit for the J.V. team were Jane Sanger, Linda Porcello, Peggy DiMaria, Cetta Angelica and Linda Yoreo.

Russ Tyler had the honor of being chosen the only sophomore on the varsity team. Rosemary Sullivan was a varsity cheerleader and Cindy Shea was a majorette.

Ken Breedon, Jim Bergeron, and Rich Gwozdz made points on the soccer field while Ray White represented our class on the hockey team.

Our first class project was the hootenanny, "Blowin' in the Wind." The M.C.'s for the night were Laura Baione and Tim Riley. Talent included Rosemary Farley, Kathy Steinert, Jane Sanger, Linda Yoreo, Pat Blownen and Chris Asselin.

Mr. Gross' Drama Guild, The Lamplighters, continued in their traditional production of plays with their outstanding portrayal of "Inherit the Wind." Highlighting the stage were Kim Martin, Dawne Robinson, and Tim Riley.

Our attempts to apply the light of knowledge in our preparation for our future were accelerated in our junior year.

Chosen class officers this year were Laura Baione, President; Dave Nelson, Vice-President; Sherry Molyn, Secretary; and Gary Gowdy, Treasurer. We elected as representatives Larry Baione, Jerry Calnen, Terry Calnen, Peter Grace, Duane Nelson, and David Nelson. Dave Nelson was also elected Student Council Treasurer.

Although the Valley Wheel Championship was not ours that year, Russ Tyler, Joe Nosal, Dan Naughton, John Ackerman, Frank Thompson, John Ravenola, John O'Dell, Robbie Robinson, Dave Tucker, and Roy King made us proud of their effort and sportsmanship on the gridiron. Fighting for the J.V.'s were Jim Arietti, Joe Kempf, Rich Nolan, Randy Ladd, and Tom Bernard.

The Varsity Basketball team, consisting of Russ Tyler, Dave Tucker, John Ravenola, John Ackerman, Jim Arietti, and Dave Petursson did their best to bring our team honor. Cheering for both football and basketball seasons were Rosemary Sullivan, Jane Sanger, Nancy Keller, Cetta Angelica, Linda Porcello, Peggy DeMaria, and Gerry Schianca. On the J.V. team were Bill Malinowski, Joe Nosal, and Rich Gwozdz. Rousing the spirit for the J.V.'s were Janice Wojnar, captain; Marlene Willette, co-captain; Marilyn Turbak, Diane McCauliff, Janice Nareski, and Pat Blown. Lynne Riopel and Cheryl Copas were on the Drill Team and Cindy Shea and Laura Baione displayed their talents as Majorettes.

Our second successful class project was the "Roaring Revue" Variety Show. Opening the show were M.C.'s Laura Baione and Jack Triolo. Highlighting the show were Kathie Steinert, Larry Baione, Marlene Willette, John Ravenola, Russ Tyler and Tim Riley.

Our Junior Prom, "Younger than Springtime," was a night to remember. The theme of the prom was accentuated with an array of springtime flowers. Host and Hostess Donnie Christmas and Terry Cremona greeted each couple. John Ravenola was chairman of the prom.

Batting for Enfield were Tim Riley, Dave Tucker, Russ Tyler, Mike Gale, Larry Hayden, Bill Malinoski, John Ravenola and Randy Ladd.

That year the Drama guild presented the never to be forgotten "Oklahoma!" In leading roles were Kim Martin, Tim Riley, Dawne Robinson, Nancy White, Janice Wojnar and John O'Dell.

Those honored scholastically were Jeff Buczacki, recipient of a Math, Science award, and the Yale Book Award and Laura Baione who received the Connecticut Association of Women Deans and Counselors Award.

Our last project of the year was the Senior Farewell Prom. Under the leadership of Angelo Severino, we made "Moments to Remember" a truly memorable night for the class of '66." Host and Hostess for the evening were Linda Porcello and Russ Tyler.

During the summer we sent Jim Arietti and Jeff Buczacki to Boy's State while Marianne Such, Shirley Guzowski, and Babbette Cote represented us at Girl's State.

We entered our senior year with the enlightenment of experience.

Again class elections were held. Laura Baione was re-elected President; David McKiernan, Vice-President; Cheryl Molyn, Secretary; and Nancy Keller, Treasurer. Student Council Representatives were all re-elected. David Nelson was then elected Student Council President and Larry Baione, Vice-President.

The players on the football field were familiar to us. Tri-Captains, John O'Dell, Russ Tyler, and John Ackerman, along with teammates Bill Eaton, Dan Naughton, Frank Thompson, Dave Tucker, Jim Arietti, Rob Robinson, Joe Nosal, Bill Kiernan, Kim Martin, Ned Arcouette, Bill Magnuson and Randy Ladd did their best to represent our school.

Cheering them on were Rosemary Sullivan, captain; Linda Porcello, co-captain; Cetta Angelica, Linda Yoreo, Nancy Keller, Jane Sanger, Marilyn Turbak, Peggy DeMaria, Gerry Schianca, and Janice Nareski.

Linda Porcello was appointed Editor-in-Chief of the yearbook while Pat Blown was named opening editor, Cindy Shea, senior editor, Rosemary Farley, features editor, Russ Tyler, Sports editor, and Marilyn Turbak, advertising editor. Diane McCauliff and Elena Lamagna were named assistant editors and Laura Baione, literary editor.

On the basketball court were Tri-Captains John Ravenola, Russ Tyler, and Dave Petursson; and seniors Jim Arietti, Rich Gwozdz, Joe Nosal, and John Ackerman.

Our Senior Prom, "Mistletoe and Holly", was alive with the spirit of Christmas. Host and Hostess, Vicki Jones and Roy King, welcomed each couple with the season's greetings. Chairman of the event was Mart Alaimo.

The Drama Club had already begun to think about their play and chose officers to lead them in their project. Elected were: Tim Riley, President; John O'Dell, Vice-President; Nancy White, Secretary-Treasurer.

Seniors on the Hockey Team were Ray White, Rich Falkowski, Jim Bergeron, Bruce Wilzewski and Bill Eaton.

Covering the bases for Enfield were Tim Riley, Russ Tyler, Bill Malinowski, Mike Gale, Randy Ladd, Dave Tucker and John Ravenola.

We leave our high school years behind us not knowing what the future will hold. But we will not be afraid of this unknown for we carry the Lamp of Knowledge whose light emanates from our heart, soul and mind, and with this light we are not afraid of the dark.

"BLOWIN' IN THE WIND"

Although we were still classified as the unorganized underclassmen, our sophomore class united various talents to produce the largest money-raising project of the year. The hootenanny "BLOWIN' IN THE WIND" was presented to a crowd of 500 persons on May 28, 1965.

M. C.'s Laura Baione and Tim Riley welcomed the audience with the old anecdote of "Hootin' Annie" and introduced the first act. The night's format focused mainly on traditional folk songs and old ballads. Humor was regularly at hand with Larry Baione and Joe Kemph's informal hour, and Tim Riley's unforgettable "Mule-skinner". Kathy Steinart and "Little Dickie", her brother, added a light touch to the show with their rendition of "Hello Dolly". The pleased audience listened to the memorable "Cruel War" sung by Pat Blownen and Linda Yoreo. Everyone was amused by our friendly guest, the smiling bee, and everyone actively participated in the sing-a-longs.

The two months of preparation and four weeks of rehearsals, the headaches and the unexpected crisis all were well worth the time and combined effort put into the show. As the lights dimmed we left the auditorium with glowing pride, a sigh of relief and the frightening resolution to have another show next year!

“ROARING REVUE”

The Enfield High School Auditorium was transformed into a twenties theatre Friday, March 25, 1966, when, as juniors, we presented the “Roaring Revue.” The show opened with the spotlight hitting M.C.’s Laura Baione and Jack Triolo.

With music provided by the Enfield High Ragtime Band, the colorful chorus line did an authentic Charleston. Marlene Wilette entertained the audience with her rendition of the striptease. Other acts of the quick-paced show included a hilarious “Batman” sequence; singing numbers by Kathie and Dickie Steinert; a solo by Prudy Robichaud; and the singing group of Linda Yoreo, Jane Sanger, Patty Blown, and Gerry Schianca.

The junior class show, “The Roaring Revue” was a roaring success.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Karl D. Lee Chapter of the National Honor Society is an honors organization whose members, both juniors and seniors, must maintain a grade of "B" or above in every subject. The society strives to uphold ideals of scholarship, leadership, character, and service in all of its participating students.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council inspires the principles of our democracy by representing the student body in the manipulations of school government. Students have an opportunity to present their opinions and proposals to the student representatives. The councilmen in turn, present these proposals at student government meetings and consider the opinions of their fellow students in the process of passing new legislation.

Conducting the meetings is David Nelson, President of the council. Vice-president, Larry Baione; Secretary, Dale Bellida; and Treasurer, Paula Manischalchi, serve their respective positions to promote better cooperation and contact between The Student Council and The Student Body.

The Enfield Student Council contributes much time and effort in personal service at all school functions. International Day is supported and conducted by the council, which aims at better relations of our student body with students throughout the world.

The dedicated faculty advisors, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Malley, Mr. Blair and Mr. Scheer contribute their experienced supervision to better coalesce administration with the student body.

The members of the Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Giangrosso express their best wishes for a happy Thanksgiving in the way they know best.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club has been a significant part of the Enfield High Music Department and a beneficial activity of the entire student body. At special holiday programs, they share their love of music by bringing pleasure to their listeners through their blending voices. The Glee Club supplied many of the cast members for the musical "Oklahoma," which was presented on Enfield High's stage in May, 1966.

The Echoes is a select group of Glee Club members who rehearse separately from the Glee Club and work on different numbers arranged for a smaller group.

and blended harmony,

BAND

Through the painstaking efforts of Mr. Leonard DeMaio and dedicated Enfield High musicians, the band of Enfield High has obtained a high rating among the high schools of Connecticut. The band opened Enfield High's performances of "Oklahoma" in May, 1966, with its stirring overture and furnished musical background for the play. This year the concert band taped radio programs for WTIC.

Throughout the school year, these musicians willingly provide musical entertainment for the student body at assembly programs and sports events.

At half-time, the Enfield High School band demonstrates its marching skills by making formation on the football field and the spirit of the spectators is aroused by its dynamic sounds.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Junior Achievement is a nationwide organization that strives to further the members' understanding of business principles. The four companies: Brimco, sponsored by Bridge Manufacturing Company; Mo-Mak, sponsored by Connecticut Light and Power; Kostar, sponsored by Bigelow Sanford Company; and Poly Belle sponsored by DeBell and Richardson, meet each week to sell stock, make products, and run their own businesses.

LIBRARY AIDES

The Library Aides are a group of dedicated students who assist the school librarian, Miss Robideau, by directing and servicing the patronizers of the library. They contribute their service before school and relinquish their study halls so that the students will be able to get the maximum benefits from the resources of the library.

The Library Aides gain valuable knowledge and experience while rendering a great service to the school and student body.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Future Teachers Club is an organization which gives guidance and experience to students who plan a teaching career. The members hear first-hand information from experienced teachers and after assimilating various teaching techniques are given an opportunity to practice with grammar school children. Visits to many other schools provide these future teachers with a well-rounded idea of all aspects of the teaching profession. Mrs. Mullen, the club's advisor, offers her teaching knowledge to the students in order to better prepare them for this rewarding profession. The concepts gained from these activities will direct these students toward becoming efficient, responsible leaders of tomorrow's youth.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The Future Nurses Club provides the opportunity for girls interested in the nursing profession to discover many different aspects of the field. To enable them to become acquainted with different schools and careers available, catalogs and pamphlets are obtained for their use. Oftentimes, representatives are engaged to present a more vivid picture of their nursing programs. To contribute to this, students attending these schools are sometimes able to accompany their representative. When convenience permits, the club itself tours some of these schools to become familiar with the general atmosphere.

The services of the members are often gladly donated to blood banks or clinics. The club also engages in projects where aid or materials are given to sick or orphaned children. In general, the Future Nurses Club helps the girls to decide how they want to further their education and to gain experience in helping others.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

The French Club, under the direction of Mrs. Hintlian and Mrs. Burstein, attempts to give its members a more thorough understanding of France and the customs and traditions of its people. To achieve this goal, meetings are conducted in French and programs examining particular aspects of French culture, which the members plan and execute, are held at intervals during the year.

The members of the Spanish Club obtain a better understanding of the people of the Spanish speaking countries by listening to Spanish college students and discussing their various customs. The five visiting Mexican students who attended our school in November and December were honored with a Christmas party given to them by the Spanish Club. The advisors of the club are Mrs. Myott, Miss Kazman, and Mr. Sullivan.

Y-TEENS CLUB

The Y-Teens Club is affiliated with the Hartford Regional Y.W.C.A. This organization is dedicated to the purpose of uniting people all over the world, regardless of race, creed, or color. Many activities of this group are directed toward assisting the less fortunate. Among their projects this year are working with the children of the State Receiving Home, making toys for children in Vietnam and items for Y.W.C.A. bazaars, and, most recently, adopting a boy from the Phillipines. The members are rewarded with the satisfaction that results from helping others.

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

Amateur radio is a scientific hobby which gives the enthusiast an opportunity to communicate with fellow operators by private shortwave radio. Amateur radio has also grown to be an important emergency communications stand-by system for the nation's civil defense. Our nation accounts for over 269,000 licensed operators while scattered over the globe are over 100,000 other amateur radio operators.

This is just the second year that Enfield High's amateur radio club has been active and only the first year that it has had a station installed in room D-13. This station has been used by licensed students in the high school to contact many areas of the United States and Canada. The club is under the supervision of Mr. Keaney.

DRAMA

We can be proud that from the class of '67, many new young actors have emerged through the guidance of the Drama Guild. Other Lamplighters have mastered the techniques of theater make-up, wardrobe, sets, stage lighting, and sound. Each Lamplighter, whether a member of the cast or crew, passes through the progressive steps of the guild system as an apprentice, a journeyman, and a master.

The club, one of the more popular activities, is open to any Enfield High student. Memories of working in a Lamplighter production will always glow in many of us who have shared this experience.

"OKLAHOMA!"

The spectacular musical "Oklahoma!", the first musical play presented on the Enfield High stage, had a record-breaking full house for five performances. This production was a milestone in the history of the drama guild. An excerpt was seen on color television, a ballet company emerged under the leadership of Janice Wojnar, and the cast and crew were composed of over two hundred students, including the Enfield High Concert Band.

Outstanding stars of "Oklahoma!" from the class of '67 included Dawne Robinson, Kimball Martin, Nancy White, Tim Riley, John O'Dell, and Janice Wojnar.

Greg Quinlan, Katie O'Brien, and Janice Wojnar of the ballet company practice their routines.

"Oklahoma!" leads are coached by Mr. Perrone.

Spotlight crew, Marianne Such and Judy Rzaza, work during sneak previews.

DRAMA

The last year in Enfield High was a busy one for the senior Lamplighters. In December, three one-act plays were featured. Linda Yoreo joined the list of spotlighted stars with her performance as a naive country girl in "Hello Out There", as did Kristine Allen in "Impromptu", and Peege Stevens in "The Devil and Daniel Webster". Bizarre character makeup of "The Devil and Daniel Webster", along with outstanding light and sound effects produced by Sue Jefferson and Bob Crawford, combined to launch the Lamplighters' Heritage Year off to a successful beginning.

"Mr. Roberts," the second of the Heritage Year productions, was presented in March, and in May the Lamplighters concluded Heritage Year with the musical revue, "So You Wanted to Come to America", an original Lamplighter production. The revue portrayed the story of the immigrants coming to America. The script was written by Marianne Such, Kenny King, Jeff Buczacki, and Jan Kaminsky; original music was written by David Isabelle; and original choreography was produced by Jan Wojnar.

Mr. Gross, Mr. Gawle, Miss Arvantelli, and Mr. Montagna have given their time to coach and advise the dedicated student members who follow the motto "Thing big, work hard, and have a dream".

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT DAY

On November 30, 1966, Enfield High seniors were able to participate in actual voting procedures for Youth in Government Day, which would place some of their fellow classmates on the Board of Education and the Town Council.

Mrs. Bigos' Problems of Democracy Classes supplied the student registrars, and seniors registered to vote during their study halls. After having his name checked in, each senior would enter a voting machine to cast his vote for the "Nutmegs" or "Charter Oaks". Upon leaving the machine the voter would have to check out again at a second panel of registrars.

The polls closed at the end of the day after many seniors had had their first experience with what would be expected of them in only a few years to come.

ELECTED OFFICIALS

The newly elected town council and board of education met in the Town Hall on Wednesday morning, December 14. Their tour of the building exposed them to the general atmosphere of the center of our town government.

At eight o'clock that evening the town council and board of education met with a large agenda on hand. The meeting was enacted just as it would have been if the real council and board members were presiding and it lasted just as long! At the close of the evening the issues that had been discussed included a loitering ordinance, a new junior and senior high school, a swimming pool in the high school, and a new central library.

APPOINTED OFFICIALS

One of the town council's previous tasks was to appoint seniors to the posts of town officials for their term of one day. On December 14 all the appointees went to their respective offices in the Town Hall. Each town official had organized an informative presentation for his own student and the entire morning was devoted to familiarizing each senior with the functions and responsibilities of his position. The program proved to be a most worthwhile and interesting experience for all who participated. Thanks went to the Enfield Jaycees, who sponsored the program.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The Enfield Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America provides training for all interested students in business operation. This group became, in 1966, the first Enfield Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America in the history of Enfield High School. Future Business Leaders of America activities include operating the school store, organizing the annual Play Day, selling advertisements for the yearbook, and selling tickets and making programs for school plays. Advisors of the club are Miss Coulombe, Mr. Bisesti, and Mr. Fitzgerald.

JUNIOR PROM

On April 15, of our junior year, our cafeteria was transformed into a cascade of spring. The atmosphere of our theme, "Younger than Spring-time", was set with a decor of spring maypoles decked with daisies.

The Host and Hostess, Donnie Christmas and Terry Cremona, greeted each couple. Charms with the design of the school ring were given as a remembrance. The orchestra of Richard Linson provided an aura of music to harmonize with the gala festivities. Highlighting the evening was a song by fellow student Dawne Robinson. Toward the close of the evening was the traditional Grand March led by the host and hostess.

The end came all too soon for a wonderful evening that will be remembered long after the spring flowers are gone.

"MOMENTS TO REMEMBER"

Before the transition from underclassmen to seniors, we bid good-bye to the graduating class of '66 by sponsoring the farewell prom on June 19, 1966. "Moments to Remember," the theme of the prom, created a nostalgic mood that evening, as the graduates brought back pleasant memories of their years at Enfield High. We, the expectant seniors-to-be, reluctant to see old friends leave, nevertheless looked forward to one more year and the unseen events it would bring.

Under the direction of Angelo Sevarino, general chairman, the gym was transformed into a vibrant summer garden complete with fountain and fresh flowers, where Russell Tyler and Linda Porcello served as Host and Hostess.

The Al Jarvis Orchestra provided dance music until the late hours of the evening. The night ended with the crowning of Rick LaFleur and Betty Meskill as King and Queen of the departing seniors.

"MISTLETOE AND HOLLY"

Adding to the festivities of the holidays was our Senior Prom, "Mistletoe and Holly." Held on December 9, 1966, it was an evening which would be cherished in the memories of all for many years after.

Our cordial host and hostess, Roy King and Vicki Jones, greeted entering couples, and each girl received a gold and white program and a gold bell laden with mistletoe and holly.

We danced under a ceiling of snowy-white streamers and gold balloons. The center of attraction was an enormous Christmas tree adorned with gay ornaments.

The enchanting atmosphere was completed as strains of "Winter Wonderland" and "Misty" floated out over the floor.

YEARBOOK

The Yearbook Staff is a dedicated group of seniors who devote their full creative ability toward making the yearbook a success. Careful planning and learning of applied skills are necessary in order to reach the objectives of the group. Choosing a theme is only the preliminary step. Materials must be organized and correlated to the theme throughout the book. To adequately meet the demands of the work necessary for the completion of the yearbook, various section editors were appointed. Under their supervision and with the cooperation of the other staff members, work began and deadline grew near. Weekend meetings became a necessity in order to meet them.

Eventually the many pictures, captions, and the various descriptions of our many school clubs, began to show the appearance of real accomplishment in the proud eyes of the yearbook staff.

THE STUDENT TICKER

Since the first issue was distributed in 1962, the Ticker staff has striven to keep the student body informed with the latest school news and to offer reading enjoyment with club news, sports, pictures, features and special columns. The content of this publication ranges from controversial editorials to the Baby of the Month feature.

The Student Ticker underwent some changes in form this past year. It was converted to a more convenient size and more legible type.

The staff worked diligently, under the supervision of Mrs. Torre, trailing the latest EHS scoops. Countless activity periods were spent editing and drafting the paper. The 1967 editors included Laura Baione, Editor-in-Chief; Sharon Zywiak, News Editor; Mary Olko, Feature Editor; Terry Calnen, Business Manager; and Jack Triolo, Sports Editor.

The eight-page publication was always welcomed by one and all. Inside one was sure to find reading pleasure well worth the dime he had exchanged.

FOOTBALL

The Green Raiders combined fierce desire and pride and the outstanding work of three, young, enthusiastic coaches into a 4-3 record, 4-2 in the Suburban League, good for third place.

Enfield opened up against Holyoke Catholic and suffered an 8-2 defeat. The ineptness of the Raider offense was the telltale factor in this game as the only score was registered by the defense when outstanding senior linebacker Randy Ladd dropped a Catholic ballcarrier in his own end zone for a safety. Defensively, John Ackerman, Shawn Ferguson, Paul Plath and Ladd were the stalwarts.

and played with skillful handling . . .

The Suburban League opener saw Enfield conquer Palmer 12-0, behind dazzling John Hayden. The swift Hayden, an explosive bundle of football lightning, took the opening kick-off and whipped 95 yards for the initial touchdown of the 1966 version of the Green Wave.

Having hardly an opportunity to catch his breath, halfback Hayden galloped 96 yards from the scrimmage to tally again. After this exhibition of running ability, the ferocious Enfield defense took over, gallantly refusing two Palmer thrusts at the Raider goal line, thus, preserving the win.

A completed Tyler pass in the making.

Tom Bernard

The aggressive Raiders displayed their talents to East Longmeadow next, crushing the outmanned Spartans 34-0. Coach Joe Lamana's well-devised offense saw left-halfback Russ Tyler hit paydirt on two occasions, scooting 8 yards the first time, and 10 yards the next. Having already added two points to one of Tyler's scores, John Hayden scored from the three yard stripe just before halftime. Powerful fullback Danny Naughton got into the act, scoring from 12 yards away, and poised junior quarterback Paul Plath followed him minutes later on a 14 yard scamper. The rugged Raider defense again shone behind the efforts of seniors Bill Eaton and Randy Ladd, and junior stand-outs Frank Scalia, Gary Nolan, and Bill Fuller.

18-0 victory. After three scoreless periods, the defense counted their second safety of the year, as Bill Eaton, John Ackerman, and Randy Ladd blitzed and floored the Minnechaug punter in the end zone. Moments later, John Hayden allayed any worries about the final outcome, as he thundered 36 yards for a touchdown, behind a crisp block by senior tri-captain John O'Dell. The other half of the Raider half-back combination, Russ Tyler, went over for the extra points. After John Ackerman recovered a Falcon fumble, Danny Naughton plunged over for a score from the one yard line. Versatile Joe Nosal scored overland on a toss from Paul Plath for the extra points. The feared defense was lead by Tom Bernard, John Ackerman, Joe Nosal and junior middle-linebacker Kirk Banks.

on the home and away fields,

After 14 consecutive unscored upon quarters, the Raiders saw their three game winning streak vanish as South Hadley edged the Raiders 13-12. This cliff-hanger saw senior left end Jim Arietti artfully fake and then outrun two defenders taking a pass from Russ Tyler, to knot the score 6-6 in the second half. With 1:51 remaining, Enfield took the ensuing kickoff after a South Hadley score and marched 6' yards to tally themselves. After two runs netted no yardage, Russ Tyler spiraled a long, crisp pass to sure-handed quarterback Paul Plath for a 51 yard gain. On the third play, Tyler swept his right flank for the touchdown. Here South Hadley crashed in to insure their victory, a heart-breaker for the Raiders.

Ned Arcoutte

Enfield took measure of Longmeadow next 38-22, in a hard-hitting and swift scramble for points. Paul Plath scored twice, once on a 27 yard pass from Russ Tyler, and again on a throw from John Hayden. The electrifying Hayden scored on a 75 yard run and a 6 yard run, and also netted two extra points. Tyler charged in from the seven yard line for another score. Joe Nosal tried passing for the last score and connected with Jim Arietti on a play that covered 70 yards. The Raider backs got bonecrushing blocking from seniors Ned Arcoutte, Robby Robinson, John Lyver, and John O'Dell in this clash. Tom Bernard stood out defensively, intercepting two Longmeadow pitches.

Jim Arietti

Joe Nosal

Dave Tucker

Tension builds at the sidelines during a vital play.

Playing for a possible share of the Suburban crown, Enfield fell to Ludlow 14-8 in an exhausting battle. Just before halftime, with the Raiders trailing 8-0, Russ Tyler took a pass in the flat from Paul Plath, and displayed his flashy form, streaking down the left sideline 59 yards for a score. John Hayden followed him over for the extra points. Midway in the fourth period, Ludlow scored the clincher, despite efforts of the Green.

Enfield was a surprise to the Suburban League this year. It was supposed to be a season to rebuild, and everyone ruled the Raiders out except the coaches and the players. They fought and combined a tremendous team spirit to mold a mediocre team into a championship contender. There was not one trace of dissension on the Raider gridiron. SOCER

The 1966 varsity soccer season began on a pessimistic note. A veteran East Windsor squad downed the Green Wave 4-1. However, Enfield's next encounter against a strong Stafford club saw the Green Raiders win 2-1. Captain Ken Breedon paced the attack on the Stafford goal with two hard-earned goals. Outstanding defense by Captain Jim Bergeron together with the sensational goal tending from Augie Gwozdz helped to turn the tide in favor of Enfield. Bruce Donnelly, a veteran, and Bruce Thayer, a newcomer, proved valuable additions to the Green Raiders.

Serious injuries to key personnel destroyed any hopes the Raiders had of making this season a success for Coaches Cliff Easton and Bill Fogarty. The 1-8 record compiled by the Enfield Raiders was no indication of what the team could have done if it had not been for crippling injuries.

BASKETBALL

The Enfield High Green Raiders, with an array of seasoned veterans and a promising group of newcomers, opened their season with high hopes. Elected to serve as captains for the Green Wave were senior lettermen Russ Tyler, Dave Petrusson, and John Ravenola.

Trade High School of Springfield opened the Green Raider season on a sour note by defeating Enfield 86-69. Russ Tyler scored 38 points, benefiting from the classy playmaking of Dave Petrusson. The Raiders then got their first taste of Connecticut basketball in over fifteen years, and were overcome twice by Norwich Free Academy, 77-57 and 60-57. Commerce High School became the Raiders first victim of the campaign, falling 63-40. Russ Tyler with 24 points, and Dave Petrusson with 12 points led the Raiders.

Enfield opened their Valley Wheel season with an impressive 76-60 victory over East Longmeadow. Russ Tyler hit 20 points, Jim Arietti caged 16, and John Ravenola popped 15, to pace the scoring. Despite the 20 point performance of senior forward Jim Arietti, Enfield lost a heartbreaker to Agawam 47-46. The Raiders then fell victim to Commerce 57-38 at the latter's gym as everything went sour in the second half.

passing techniques,

Enfield opened a long home stand by defeating Longmeadow 74-43, as Russ Tyler popped 24 points and Dave Petursson hit 16. Easthampton was punished by the Raiders to the tune of 83-53, as Russ Tyler dropped 34 points through the nets. Enfield dropped a crucial tilt to Ludlow, 69-60. The Raiders got into foul trouble and a late rally fell short as they dropped two games behind in the Valley Wheel. Enfield redeemed themselves by defeating Minnechaug 86-62, as Russ Tyler hit a career high of 39 points. Sparked by the strong second half performance of Richard Gwozdz, the Raiders continued their high-scoring ways with a 81-48 conquest of East Longmeadow. Led by a third quarter one-man show by senior playmaking specialist Dave Petursson, Enfield downed defending champion Agawam 72-64. Petursson shoveled in 25, and Russ Tyler chipped in with 23 in the Raider upset win. Enfield avenged their opening game loss to Trade by sending the Beavers home with a 80-67 loss pinned to their tails. Tyler paced the Raiders with 28 points and Jim Arietti played a fine floor game. Longmeadow High School negated any Enfield title aspirations with a stunning 65-57 victory. The Raiders recovered from the Longmeadow catastrophe by downing Easthampton 89-78. Four Raiders hit double figures, with Tyler hitting 31, John Ravenola powering through 19, Dave Petursson popping 14, and Jim Arietti adding 12. GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team played its last season under the capable direction of Mrs. Ida Bryant. Hopes ran high at the beginning of the season as the girls opened with a winning streak, yet closed with a disappointing 6-6 season. Several of the games proved to be highly competitive. The Ludlow game went into three over-times with the Enfield girls pulling it out, 28-27. The last game of the season against arch rival Ware, the Valley Wheel Champions, showed the girls' abilities to best advantage. A see-saw battle raged in the last half, which saw the girls lose by a slim two points.

The Enfield High School Junior Varsity employed a stymying zone press and an explosive fast break in winning their last 13 games in succession, to finish with a 13-5 record. First year coaches Bob Bromage and Al Tracey continued the tradition set by past junior varsity teams, that of winning the Valley Wheel Junior Varsity title. Those who played major roles in the junior varsity's fine year were Bob Zawada, Joe Bacewicz, Vin Spanilo, Ken Kalva, and Kevin Purdy.

HOCKEY

The Enfield High School Hockey Squad finished their season with a 1-12-1 record. The season wasn't quite as disappointing as its mark may indicate. Coach Dave Keaney did a fine job in this rebuilding season, as the Raiders were in contention in most of their games. Enfield seemed to play its best against a powerful Longmeadow squad, and with a few breaks, might have defeated the Lancers each time. The lone victory of the season came against a fine Easthampton team with a 2-1 score.

The Green Wave was hampered by not having their own rink. The Raiders were forced to play all home games in South Windsor and played many topnotch league teams.

One bright spot of the season was the victory registered over the faculty in the first annual Faculty-Varsity game. Departing seniors include Ray White, Jim Bergeron, Bill Eaton, Bruce Wilczewski, and Richard Falkowski.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

As with all teams, ours needed the support of the fans. The outstanding enthusiasm of the Green Raiders this year was due in no small part to the tireless spirit of the Varsity Cheerleaders.

Under the guidance of Miss Cookie Blodgett, the cheerleaders worked long, hard hours to perfect their cheers and promote school spirit at games. This year, for the first time, they helped to restore spirit and attendance at a soccer game.

The cheerleaders of '66-'67 have worked diligently together to help build school spirit that Enfield will never lose. We hope that in future years this spirit will continue as an important aspect of our school years.

Indications are a greater number of high school graduates are now enrolled in our colleges and universities than ever before in the history of our country. This is most encouraging, for it demonstrates a realization on the part of our youth, a desire to equip themselves better for the tasks that lie ahead.

and said our last farewell.

FAREWELL PROM

The underclassmen bid a final farewell to us on the memorable evening of June 23, 1967, with the Spanish atmosphere, "No Te Olvides." Climaxing the evening was the traditional crowning of the parting King and Queen. For the first time the titles were shared by two couples because of a tie. Co-Kings and Co-Queens were Terry Cremona and Don Christmas, and Vicki Jones and Tim Riley. Chosen for the Queen's Court were Laura Baione, Carmie Reale, Marilyn Sawicki, and Nancy White. Greeting the guests at the door were the junior Host and Hostesses, Nick Galluccio and Fran Mangini.

The colorful Grand March highlights the evening.

"Meet Bill and Marleen."

and the traditional class show.

"OUR GANG"

Again we combined our talents to present our most successful class show, "Our Gang", on April 21, 1967.

The variety was light and funny with good singing, swinging combos, and hysterical interruptions. The audience was certainly pleased to spend a night with "Our Gang."

"Meet the Kids."

"Meet the Swingers."

"Meet the Farley Sisters."

"Meet Laura."

"Meet John."

In Memoriam

HOWARD FLORIAN LAVALETTE

His sparkling spirit and eager mind will always remain in our memory. No power can take away his loyalty to God and his fellow man.

We, his classmates, honor the memory of Howard, a friend we will all truly miss, a friend we will never forget.

REBECCA W. GREGOR

Rebecca W. Gregor, through her good nature and concern for others, enlightened her students and friends during her year at Enfield. Her dedicated work guided her girls toward a vibrant and healthful life. Her high standards sparked in them a desire for achievement. Her effort and sincerity enriched them with confidence and glowing pride. All this, Rebecca Gregor has instilled in the memory of her students at Enfield.
